For the first
time in Sri Lanka,
a creative writing course conducted by professional and award winning Sri Lankan writers

Sponsored by the American Center of Colombo, this one-year course will be made up of 11 sessions. Participants will listen to award-winning notable authors, playwrights, poets, scriptwriters and more. Each session will be conducted by a specialist writer in the various genres with interactive discussions and writing tasks. The course will be coordinated by Ameena Hussein and Ramya Chamalie Jirasinghe.

The selection of participants will be based on a writing sample sent in by applicants. The deadline for applications - October 6, 2011.

Course commences on the 26th of October with sessions every last Wednesday of the month. Please send us a completed application form and a writing sample to: weerasekerac@state.gov

Hurry! Limited to approx. 15 participants
